Pune: National inter-collegiate hospitality competition 'Atithya - A reflection of hospitality', organised by the All Indian Shri Shivaji Memorial Society's College of Hotel Management and Catering Technology (AISSMS-CHMCT) will begin on February 11.

Sakal Times is the media partner for the sixth edition of the three-day event.

The competition aims at providing a platform for young talent to showcase their creativity. More than 20 teams from various colleges from Hyderabad, Bengaluru, Mumbai and Delhi will participate in the event.

The competition is divided into four segments, culinary competitions, F&B service competitions, accommodation competitions and general competitions.

Infusing Indian spices in western dishes, flambe presentation, using foliage in sprucing up floral arrangements and brochure designing will be part of the competitions and each competition at the event will be judged by an eminent jury from the industry.

Malojiraje Chhatrapati, Secretary of AISSM, said, "Education is knowing, discovering, exploring and sharing; research and innovation is the way forward and events like Atithya provide abundant opportunities for learning and holistic development of young minds."

AISSMS-CHMCT Principal Sonali Jadhav said that the institute strives towards continual improvement and learning, beyond the confines of the classroom. "During Atithya, students get to interact with industry specialists and diverse teams. This culminates in an atmosphere conducive to learning," she said.

On the last day of the event, there will be an award ceremony which will be followed by a Tex-Mex theme dinner. Vijayan Gangadharan, General Manager of Four Points Sheraton, Viman Nagar, Pune, will be chief guest for the programme and Ranjithsinh Mohite-Patil, former Member of Parliament, will be the guest of honour.

Pune: The final day of Atithya, a three-day national inter-college hospitality competition, tested participants for their planning, budgeting and innovation skills.

Atithya was organised by the All India Shri Shivaji Memorial Society's College of Hotel Management and Catering Technology (AISSMS-CHMCT). Sakal Times was the media partner for the event.

The last day witnessed the biggest competition at the event, where all six participants of each of the eight top teams put up a fine dining meal experience at 'Nouvelle Gastronomie'.

The teams were asked to shop with a budget provided to them and prepare a three-course meal. Students selected varied themes like Casino Royale, Thai and International and were judged by Mark Philipose and Sandeep Pusdekar, who praised the collective efforts of the teams and the finesse of the dining experience, which they said was comparable to what is expected from star hotels.

Pune: Bengaluru-based Christ University's Department of Hotel Management won the Champion's Trophy at 'Atithya - A Reflection of Hospitality', organised by the All India Shri Shiva-ji Memorial Society's College of Hotel Management and Catering Technology (AISSMS-CHMCT).

Sakal Times is the media partner for Atithya. The award function of the sixth edition of Atithya took place on Friday. Malojiraje Chhatrapati, Secretary of AISSMS, said Atithya is a one of its kind hospitality event.

He was pleased to remark that the number of participants of the festival has been increasing over the years.

Chief Guest for the event and General Manager of Four Points, Vimannagar Vijayan Gangadharan encouraged participants to pursue their career. He said, "There will be ample jobs in the hospitality industry as there is a dearth of skilled manpower; not many students have presentation skills. Students should work on it and the hotel industry should take the responsibility to mentor students and build professionals."

Ranjitsinh Mohite-Patil,

former MP and Guest of Honour, appreciated AISSMS College of HMCT in its endeavour to promote excellence in the industry by means of events like Atithya.

The award function was followed by a Tex - Mex themed gourmet dinner that catered to over 500 invitees. This theme dinner, competitive with industry standards, was organised by students.

Abhijeet Vanarase and Kartik Dinesahan handled the culinary section while Advait Nigudkar and Sumit Pendharkar took over F&B services. Accommodation was handled by Aarti Sonawane, Rohan Sirsat.
